

Study Format

Joy in The Furnace is a six-week study. Each week is divided into five days of homework containing four different focus sections:

- DAY ONE: Principles of the Furnace (by weekly topic)

This section consists primarily of reading, where each week you will discover one of the six joy-producing principles found in the story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

- DAY TWO: Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego's Furnace

This section contains a review and application of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego's furnace. You will examine their story and ponder thoughts concerning their experience.

- DAY THREE: Others in the Furnace

This section shows how each principle is exemplified in the lives of others throughout the Word. The primary purpose is to reinforce each principle as demonstrated by more than just three men in a fiery furnace. Secondly, this section will challenge you to dig into the Word of God, developing a deeper love for studying the Bible.

- DAY FOUR: A Deeper Look at Others in the Furnace

This section continues our journey through God's Word, identifying each principle with those from Scripture who encountered the furnace. Your study of the Word will lead you to understand that these principles are not only
